Cape Clogs, a Bourne-based footwear company founded by Pamela Irving, will donate $5 to the Ellie Fund's "Care for the Caregiver" program for every pair of Pink Ribbon-style clogs it sells.

Since launching its "Clogs for a Cure" campaign two years ago, Cape Clogs has sold more than 2,000 pairs of clogs and donated more than $4,200 in product to support breast cancer organizations. Irving created the Pink Ribbon clog in memory of her mother, Joyce E. Irving.
